Madrid, March 13. N. S.

THE Prince of Aſturias, who for ſome time was indiſpoſed of a Cold, attended with a Fever, is now perfectly recovered. The Queen hath declared, that ſhe is three Months gone with Child, which hath occaſioned great Joy here, and the Principal Nobility have complimented her Majeſty upon that occaſion. The Suſpenſion of Arms with the Crown of Portugal is renewed for Four Months, and a Correſpondence is again ſettled with that Kingdom. We have received advice from Catalonia, that a Squadron of Britiſh Ships was come into the Port of Barcelona, and that immediately after their arrival, the Empreſs had declared to the Deputies and Magiſtrates of the City, that his Imperial Majeſty being obliged by the Treaty of Peace, to renounce his Pretenſions to the Crown of Spain, and conſequently to evacuate Catalonia, ſhe intended to embark for Italy as ſoon as the Wind would permit. It is thought the States of the Province upon this Declaration, will ſend Deputies to the King to acknowledge him for their lawful Sovereign. A Courier from Carthagena hath brought an Account, that the Perſons who went from thence on the 2d of February laſt, to redeem the Captives at Algiers, were returned on the 6th Inſtant, with Two hundred and eight Slaves, among whom are Fifty Officers, and Eleven Children.

Vienna, March 22. N. S. On the 19th, the Court went into Mourning for the Death of the late King of Pruſſia. The next Day the Emperor declared Count Schlick, Chancellor of Bohemia, and it is thought he will be ſucceeded in his Poſt of Commiſſary-General of the Council of War, either by Count Thierheim or Count Althann. Prince Eugene hath already ſent away his Equipage to the Low-Countries, intending to follow himſelf in three or four Days. Marſhal Daun, who is conſtituted Vice-Roy of Naples, will ſet out about the ſame time for that Kingdom. Monſieur Bartholdi, the Pruſſian Miniſter, is recalled by the King his Maſter, who hath ordered his Secretary here to tranſact his Affairs at this Court. The Miniſters of the Duke of Guaſtalla have received Inveſtiture in his Name of the States he holds from the Emperor. Laſt Night two Expreſſes diſpatched by the Britiſh and Holſtein Miniſters at Bender, arrived here. They bring a particular Account of the late Action between the Swedes and the Turks, as alſo a Confirmation of the King of Sweden's being carry'd away Priſoner to Adrianople: Notwithſtanding which, our laſt Advices from Turky inform us, that the Grand Signior continues to make great Preparations for a War, which he is reſolved to puſh on with Vigour againſt the Muſcovites, and it is ſaid he intends to lead his Army in Perſon.

Berlin, March 25. N. S. The King went this Morning to Charlottemburg, and it is ſaid he will go ſoon to Hall, and from thence to Magdeburg, to review the Troops that have ſerved lately in Italy. His Majeſty hath been pleaſed to remit to his Subjects the uſual Preſent they make to their new Sovereign, which amounts to a very conſiderable Sum. The number of Employments, as well Civil as Military, is leſſened every Day, and the King intends not to have a much larger Court than he had when he was Prince-Royal. Baron Dankelman, who was firſt Miniſter in the late Reign, came hither from Cotbus a few Days ago. He was above an Hour in private with his Majeſty, who received him very graciouſly. Monſieur Haneroth is reſtored to his Employment of Privy-Counſellor. The Effects of Liebmans, the Jew, which were lately ſeized to anſwer the Crown's Demands upon her, are found to amount to One hundred thouſand Crowns. It is ſaid the King is inclined to accept of a Compoſition from her. Major-General Hamerſtein, who came to this Court with a Compliment of Condoleance from the Elector of Hanover, had an Audience of Leave on the 23d, and this Day he ſet out from hence, in order to return home. The Body of the late King having lain in State for ſome time, during which he was attended by the Privy-Counſellors, and the Officers of the Army, and the Houſhold, as if he had been ſtill alive, was depoſited a few Days ago in the Chapel till the Day of his Funeral, which is appointed to be on the firſt of May.

Hanover, March 31. N. S. Monſieur Fabrice, who was formerly Envoy from his Electoral Highneſs to the Czar and to King Auguſtus, is made a Privy-Counſellor; and at the ſame time the Elector conſtituted three new Chamberlains. Orders are ſent to Monſieur Puckler, Secretary of this Court at Copenhagen, to go to the King of Denmark at Huſum in Holſtein; and upon his arrival there, Monſieur Schulemburg is to take Leave of his Majeſty, in order to return hither. We have received Advice, that Prince Menzikoff ſent an Aid de Camp with a Letter to Count Steinbock, acquainting him with the Misfortune that have happened to the King his Maſter in Turky. The Swediſh General writ him a very civil Anſwer, in which he thanks him for communicating to him the Account he had received, but declares at the ſame time, that he can't look upon it to be Authentick.

Utrecht, April 11. N. S. The Plenipotentiaries of the States General, who went lately to the Hague to receive the laſt Inſtructions of their Maſters, in relation to the Peace, being returned from thence, had a Conference yeſterday Morning with the Queen's Plenipotentiaries, and another in the Afternoon with thoſe of France in their Lordſhips Preſence, in which they went through and ſettled their Treaties of Peace and Commerce. This Morning the Miniſters of the Proteſtant Allies met at the Town-houſe and drew up a Repreſentation in favour of the French Proteſtants, which was delivered by their Lordſhips to the Plenipotentiaries of that Nation: They went afterwards to Count Zinzendorff, told him they were going to Sign the Queen's Peace, and ſhew'd him the Plan they had ſtipulated with the French for the Emperor and the Empire till the Firſt of June. They proceeded from thence to the Houſes of the other Miniſters of the Allies, and notified the ſame thing to them. At two in the Afternoon the Miniſters of France came to the Lord Privy-Seal's Houſe, and Her Majeſty's Treaties of Peace and Commerce were Signed there; ſoon after the Duke of Savoy's Miniſters came likewiſe, and Signed their Maſter's Peace. They all dined at the Earl of Strafford's, where the Treaties of Portugal, Pruſſia, and the States-General were alſo Signed, to the mutual Satisfaction of all the Parties concerned.

London, April 3. This Day George St. John, Eſq; Secretary to the Ambaſſy at Utrecht, arrived here Expreſs from thence, and brought an Account, That on Tueſday
